Coquitlam Express Supports SHARE

Coquitlam Express fans are asked to make a difference in their community while supporting them this summer. For the month of June, The Coquitlam Express is partnering with SHARE Family & Community Services Society (SHARE) by offering season tickets when people donate $100 or more to SHARE.

In June, fans can donate to SHARE and receive a season ticket for the 2023-2024 season of the Coquitlam Express! The Coquitlam Express are the Tri-Cities highest level sports team for athletes who are looking to continue their hockey career while obtaining a scholarship. The Express are entering their 22nd season in the BCHL and play all their home games at the Poirier Sports Complex in Coquitlam. For further information on the Coquitlam Express please visit <https://www.coquitlamexpress.ca/>

Donors will receive a Coquitlam Express season ticket based on the amount they donate:
$100 for one 2023-2024 Season Ticket (Child)
$200 for one 2023-2024 Season Ticket (Senior)
$300 for one 2023-2024 Season Ticket (Adult)

SHARE's programs and services directly benefit the Tri-Cities' vulnerable children, youth, adults, and seniors. Serving over 22,000 people each year, SHARE provides a wide range of services and supports, including the Tri-Cities food bank, English language practice groups, drop-in play programs for young children, the rent bank, housing and legal advocacy, affordable housing, employment services, early intervention therapy for children with special needs, clinical counselling, and programs for seniors, refugees, and newcomers across the Tri-Cities. SHARE's focus is on uprooting poverty, improving social well-being, and building an inclusive community. Working together with the community, SHARE's vision is a strong community that welcomes everyone to live, participate, contribute, & reach their full potential.
